

Introduction & Purpose

Dorothy Mountain Memorial Scholarship

The Dorothy Mountain Memorial Scholarship is awarded each year by the Loveland Archaeological Society, Inc (LAS). Applications are accepted each year from March 1 through May 15 for the University of Wyoming and from Colorado State University. The recipient will be selected and notified by June 30. The scholarship will be awarded in September during the Loveland Stone Age Fair (SAF) at the beginning of the SAF program. The SAF is held in Loveland, Colorado, each year on the last full weekend in September. The scholarship funds will be paid to the recipient.

The scholarship will be administered by the LAS with assistance from the University of Wyoming (UW) and/or Colorado State University (CSU). Application packages are available from the department administrative assistant in the UW Anthropology Main Office (Keith Kanbe, Kanbe@uwyo.edu) c/o Dr. Marcel Kornfeld, or from Dr. Jason LaBelle at CSU (Clark B222; Jason.labelle@colostate.edu). Completed applications may be e-mailed or may be returned to the CSU (Jason.labelle@colostate.edu) or UW Anthropology department (Kanbe@uwyo.edu) by May 15.

Dorothy Mountain was a long-time member of the LAS, and a long-time collector of Indian Artifacts. She maintained precise site records of the artifacts she found, thereby ensuring their value for archaeological study both before and after her passing. The scholarship was established by her son and daughter-in-law, Phil and Taimi Clark. Memorial contributions in Dorothy's honor have enhanced and will help perpetuate this scholarship.
