

Introduction & Purpose

Loveland Archaeological Society / Harry Walts Memorial Graduate Scholarship

The Loveland Archaeological Society / Harry Walts Memorial Graduate Scholarship is awarded each year by the Loveland Archaeological Society, Inc (LAS). Applications are accepted each year from March 1 through May 15. The recipient will be selected and notified by June 30. The scholarship will be awarded in September during the Loveland Stone Age Fair (SAF) at the beginning of the SAF program. The SAF is held in Loveland, Colorado, each year on the last full weekend in September. The scholarship funds will be paid to the recipient.

The scholarship will be administered by the LAS with assistance from the University of Wyoming. Application packages are available from the department administrative assistant in the University of Wyoming Anthropology Office (Keith Kanbe, Kanbe@uwyo.edu), c/o Dr. Marcel Kornfeld. Completed applications must be returned to the department administrative assistant by May 15.

The late Harry Walts was a long-time member of the LAS, and a long-time collector of Indian Artifacts. He always had a desire to support archaeology through research and education. Memorial contributions in Harry's honor formed the basis for this scholarship.

Name of scholarship: Loveland Archaeological Society / Harry Walts Memorial Graduate Scholarship

Eligible recipients: University of Wyoming graduate students. Preference will be given for Colorado or Wyoming studies. Also considered would be focus in western high plains, foothills & mountains, Great Basin, or Colorado plateau.

Amount of scholarship: $600

Administration of scholarship: The Loveland Archaeological Society (LAS), with assistance from the University of Wyoming.

Application: Refer to attached form

Funding of scholarship: Provide a scholarship valued at $600. Fund the scholarship:

First: With donations to the LAS from club members and the public specifically designated for the scholarship fund. This would include the Harry Walts memorial contributions.

Second: With interest earned on the money that the LAS has invested in CDs.

Third: With money obtained from the principal of the LAS CDs. It is hoped that enough money would be obtained each year from the first two sources to negate the need for this third source.

Who may apply:

1. Graduate students in Anthropology at the University of Wyoming with an emphasis toward archaeology.
2. The student is expected to make Archaeology a vocation and to contribute constructively to its field.
3. The applicant must have maintained a 3.0 GPA in all courses.

Where to submit application:
